

CARVING OUT SPACES AND DEFENDING THEM

with open doors for all of us who are structurally oppressed and recognized last by this society

Our path to (un)learning is full of uncertainties

Foundation-class is a tool responsibility isn't something that is handed to you. It's not about "helping us get across this barrier". It's about understanding there are no barriers and BRINGING IT DOWN Create art access focused on the struggles and voices of the ignored and pushed aside.

The "FoundationClass" is built for people who experience racism, identify as BIPOC or have experience of flight and migration. Fighters and survivors.

Reducing the institutional isolation we brushes at hand, we are painting the real picture no filters
